WELCOME

At Investing in Truth, our mission is to disciple Christians through the building of a biblical financial worldview. Instead of following the advice of secular financial experts that have no perspective of eternity, we need to seek wisdom in its one true source, God's Word. As it says in Colossians 2 – we have "Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." Once we have an understanding of the truth, we can begin to understand the world around us. As we strive to reflect the image of Christ, let's start by Investing in Truth before we invest in anything else.
